A fabulous end of row 2+1 townhouse located in the ever popular urbanisation of Al-Sakia

A fabulous end of row 2+1 townhouse located in the ever popular urbanisation of Al-Sakia. The area benefits from having a local school close by. There are a number of restaurants and a supermarket within walking distance too. On the urbanisation itself there is a hugely popular restaurant and bar with daily live, music which overlook the large gardens and communal swimming pool. There is also a gym, tennis court and now 5 brand new Padel Tennis courts which all add to this sought after area.

The townhouse itself is south facing and has great views over the communal garden area and its own private terraced area to the rear of the property. A good sized kitchen is to the left of the entrance hallway and that leads on to the social bathroom and a super south facing lounge and dining room area. This room also has a balcony overlooking the green area. There are two great b
