Presenting an exceptionally spacious and inviting four-bedroom townhouse nestled in a secluded and highly sought-after area of Vilamoura. Part of a select enclave of just six townhouses, this property shares access to a communal swimming pool, rarely utilised, while each residence enjoys its own private garden overlooking the picturesque poolside setting.

Spanning four floors, this townhouse boasts a private garage and a versatile basement space ideal for a games room, home theatre, or an additional bedroom. The four generously sized bedrooms are appointed with built-in wardrobes for added convenience.

Stepping through the entrance, you're greeted by a charming Portuguese beams private porch. To the right, a well-proportioned separate kitchen awaits, fully equipped with modern amenities including a dishwasher, washing machine, built-in oven-grill, fridge freezer, gas hob, and microwave.
