One bedroom apartment in the center of Almancil - fully refurbished

This is a fully refurbished one bedroom apartment in the center of Almancil. It has installed air-conditioning, an independent bathroom, and equipped kitchen; including a freestanding fridge, built-in hob, oven and microwave and washing machine. It is located on the first floor of a small residential block with lift. The interior is beautifully decorated and tastefully furnished.

As you enter the property, there is an open space with the fully equipped modern kitchen, lounge and dining area. A separate bathroom consisting of a shower space with a sink, toilet, heated towel rail and hot water boiler. At the end of the open lounge, on the right, there is the entrance to a separate and spacious bedroom with fitted wardrobe and beautifully designed false ceiling with recessed lights. Which can create a different atmosphere with the different lighting options.
